In a 1949 incident for which the freshman Senator would be widely criticized, McCarthy took a brave and lonely stand by advocating for the commutation of death sentences given to a group of Waffen-SS soldiers wrongly convicted of massacring American prisoners of war in 1944. To the dismay of Communists and some Jewish groups, McCarthy condemned the convictions because torture (repeated hard kicks to the testicles of the Germans) had been used to extract "confessions." He charged the U.S. Army of engaging in a cover-up of this commonly-used interrogation practice.

1921-22 War Communism starves 10 million to death. The Communists ran the money-printing presses to finance their civil war and Marxist schemes. When inflation followed, they imposed price controls, causing farmers to lose money by farming. Compounding the shortage was the Red seizure of seeds. The horrific famine was then used to selectively feed regions submissive to the Reds, and starve out those loyal to the Whites.

"This new and complete Revolution we contemplate can be defined in a very few words. It is outright world-socialism; .scientifically planned and directed."… Countless people will hate the new world order and will die protesting against it. When we attempt to evaluate its promise, we have to bear in mind the distress of a generation or so of malcontents. …..The term Internationalism has been 68 popularized in recent years to cover an interlocking financial, political, and economic world force for the purpose of establishing a World Government." H.G. Wells

69 However, after the war, Stalin would break with the Globalists and move towards a form of Nationalistic Communism instead. Stalin would still support world-wide Communist revolution, of course, but his vision of a New World Order was one in which Moscow called the shots, not London or New York.

"At Wheeling, I discussed a letter which Secretary of State Byrnes wrote in 1946 to Congressman Adolph Sabath. In that letter, Byrnes stated that 284 individuals had been declared by the President's security officers as unfit to work in the State Department because of Communist activities and for other reasons, but that only 79 had been discharged. This left a balance of 205 who were still on the State Department's payroll even though the President's own security officers had declared them unfit for government service. I did not have the names of the 205 referred to in the Byrnes letter. I did have the names of 57 who were either members of or loyal to the Communist Party." Joseph McCarthy

In 1954, when the Senate voted to censure McCarthy; JFK would be the only Democratic Senator not to publicly declare support for the censure of McCarthy's. He would not even be present for the humiliating vote, having conveniently scheduled a surgery for that day. It was not until 1956 that JFK would issue a vague public statement supporting McCarthy's censure, and that was only because his political future dictated it.

"I warn you, however, that the task will not be a pleasant one. When you detect and start to expose a teacher with a Communist mind, you will be damned and smeared.
